one of the most critical ways that individuals can influence governmental decision making is through voting.

we specifically want to mention that it was an unbiased analysis.

we can learn about the winning party and their success in 2019 the 2019 general election that reelected incumbent party shows significant irregularities in election data.

it implies that in constituencies that were closely contested between a candidate from the incumbent party and a rival, the incumbent party won disproportionately more of them than lost.
